José Antonio Miranda
Chief Executive Office
Avangrid
Orange, CT

José Antonio Miranda Soto was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Avangrid in June 2025. Avangrid, a leading energy company in the United States and a member of the Iberdrola Group, operates regulated utilities and energy infrastructure across more than 20 states, serving millions of customers through its electric and gas networks and generation assets.

With over two decades of global leadership experience in the energy sector, José Antonio brings a proven track record of operational excellence, strategic growth, and innovation in the industry.

Since joining Avangrid in 2021, José Antonio has held several key leadership roles, including President & CEO of Avangrid Power's Onshore business and President & CEO of Avangrid Power. In these roles, he has overseen the strategic direction and operations of Avangrid's extensive generation portfolio of over 10 GW of installed capacity across 21 U.S states.

Under his leadership, Avangrid Power achieved significant milestones, including the commercial operation of over 1,000 MW of new projects, final investment decisions for almost 2,000 MW, and the signing or renegotiation of over 2,000 MW in power purchase agreements. In addition, José Antonio also played a key role in advancing some of the company's major infrastructure projects, including Vineyard Wind 1, the nation's first utility-scale offshore wind energy project.

Prior to joining Avangrid, José Antonio held senior leadership roles at Siemens Gamesa, including CEO of the Americas region and Chairman of its Boards in the U.S., Mexico, and Brazil. He also served as Gamesa's CEO in Asia and Latin America, where he consistently delivered strong financial results, expanded market share, and improved operational governance. Earlier in his career, he also held various leadership roles at the multinational engineering firm ABB in Spain, managing business units and key accounts in the transmission and distribution sector.

José Antonio has also served on the Board of Directors for the American Clean Power Association, Secretary of the Board and Executive Committee member of the American Wind Energy Association, and member of the High-Level Climate Action Panel (HICAP) for the UN Sustainable Development Goals and the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA).

José Antonio holds a degree in Electrical Engineering from Universidad de Oviedo and an MBA from Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE). He is fluent in Spanish, English, and French.

Daniel P. Mulhern
Chair, Public Policy & Government Affairs
Nutter
Boston, MA

Daniel P. Mulhern is a partner and chair of Nutter's Public Policy and Government Affairs group, bringing extensive government service and litigation experience to his practice. He advises clients on internal investigations, dispute resolution, crisis management, government enforcement actions, and high-level strategic decisions. Dan works with a diverse range of clients, providing legal guidance aligned with business objectives and long-term goals. With a pragmatic, solutions oriented approach, he delivers advice that is both legally sound and commercially effective. He currently is a member of the Judicial Nominating Commission and multiple boards and served as a member of the transition team for Governor Maura Healey.

Additionally, Dan chaired the 2024 Children's Advocacy Center's annual Step Up & Speak Out event which raises funds and awareness for children impacted by abuse and exploitation. Dan has been recognized locally and nationally for his work leading interdisciplinary, collaborative, and public-health-focused approaches to public safety and criminal justice reform, including awards from the United States Attorney General and the University of Massachusetts Boston Robert H. Quinn Award for Outstanding Community Leadership in the Greater Boston area.

Prior to joining Nutter, Dan served as the Suffolk County First Assistant District Attorney. In this capacity, he oversaw SCDAO's trial teams and their handling of over 25,000 cases in courts across Suffolk County and lead the District Attorney's efforts to address the impact of COVID-19 on the criminal justice system and Trial Court with an interdisciplinary team. Dan also spearheaded the District Attorney's efforts to establish best practices in fatal and non-fatal use of force investigations and allocation of internal and external resources to impact public safety outcomes and has extensive experience in crisis management and communication. Before that, Dan was a Senior Advisor and Director of the City of Boston's Office of Public Safety to then Mayor Martin J. Walsh. In this role, he worked to establish cross-agency and cabinet coordination to tackle the challenging and complex problems that lead to and perpetuate violence. Dan also served as the Chief of the Gang Unit and Neighborhoods Initiative at SCDAO, a prosecutor in the Middlesex County District Attorney's Office, and a Special Assistant United States Attorney. Dan has extensive trial experience and has led/co-led complex state and federal investigations in gang interdiction, narcotics and firearm trafficking, and asset forfeiture.

Throughout his career, Dan has demonstrated a commitment to tackling complex issues contributing to violence, fostering cross-agency coordination, and leading groundbreaking initiatives in gang interdiction, narcotics and firearm trafficking, and asset forfeiture. With a wealth of trial experience and a track record of successfully managing complex state and federal investigations, Dan remains at the forefront of shaping policies and strategies that drive positive outcomes for his clients and communities alike.
